FEBRUARY CAR DISPLAY SCHEDULED

Once again its time to dust off that classic beauty and roll 'er out to Chesterfield Mall for the weekend of February 22nd and 23rd.

Several Club members will get a chance to have their Mustang on public display. It will give the Central Virginia Mustang Club an opportunity to promote the preservation and restoration of Mustangs. We might even find some folks that don't PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE...

Here we are with our first year behind us and looking forward to an exciting future. We have before us rather large challenges. It may seem that we just finished our most difficult year, but in fact this was our easiest year. We must respond to a variety of 1986 challenges. The challenge to continue membership growth and maintain the interest of all members. The challenge to further organize our existing activities and develop new ones. The officers have an advantage since most served last year, but realize and pledge to work much harder this year. Alas, it is not just the officers that must rise to meet the challenges, but each and everyone of us. Join in the fun . . . volunteer, say YES! whenever possible.

TERRY WAGNER,
PRESIDENT

know about our Club and encourage them to join. Chesterfield Mall will take care of promoting the show. The displays and our Club booth will be set up on Friday evening.

If you wish to participate, call Leroy Lilly or Sal LaPaglia. Additional details will be given at the meeting Wednesday evening. If you aren't ready to bring your treasure out of the garage yet, don't have a suitable car or a car at all, you can still participate by scheduling an hour or two to talk with spectators and help with the security of the displays. This is a great way to meet other Club members, learn about different model Mustangs and get your share of FUN out of the Central Virginia Mustang Club.

CVMC WINS LOCAL AWARDS

Programs.....calendars.....
Get 'em both for $6.00.
These words rang out loudly
from our hard working Club members at the Stars and Cars Auto Show held January
10, 11 and 12 at the Arena.
Our Club netted dollars for the treasury and trophies all around.

It all started late on Thursday night. This "spur
of the moment" Club
participation in the show
was organized by Club
member Kenny Fischer.
Kenny, whose 'Lil Black Pony
was already entered in the show, responded to a plea
from the show promoter to please get a few cars
together for a Club display
by Friday morning, just a few hours away.

Friday morning soon came
and after the phone lines
quit buzzing and the dust
settled, Carroll Lipscombe, Tina and Terry Wagner, Judy and Monte Evans had joined Nellie and Kenny Fischer at the arena
to begin setting up a Club display
that included cars, banners,
posters, flags, Club literature,
lights and enthusiastic members
of the Mustang persuasion.

During the three day
event, many Club members,
including Charlie Coro, Bob Leipertz, Al Azzarone, David
Lythgoe, Jeff and Renee
Miller, Sal LaPaglia, Kent and Connie Callahan and of course all those who had cars on display. Everyone joined in selling calendars and programs at the door to oogie-eyed lovers of chrome
and paint who came to see
the cars and the bathing beauties on stage competing in the Miss English Leather contest.

Thanks goes to Kenny for making a great "deal" with the promoter; the Club would sell the goodies and get 20%
of the gross which netted $220 and a lot of sore
throats; the snake oil type sales persons!

All in all, the weekend was a great time from setting up
to tearing down the displays.
We all talked and laughed,
recruited new members,
dusted our cars and walked
in circles enjoying the many things a car show provides.

The icing on the cake came Sunday night for the Club
and members at the awards ceremony. As Terry Wagner
put it, ... "WE'RE BAD".

CANNONBALL RALLY ANYONE?

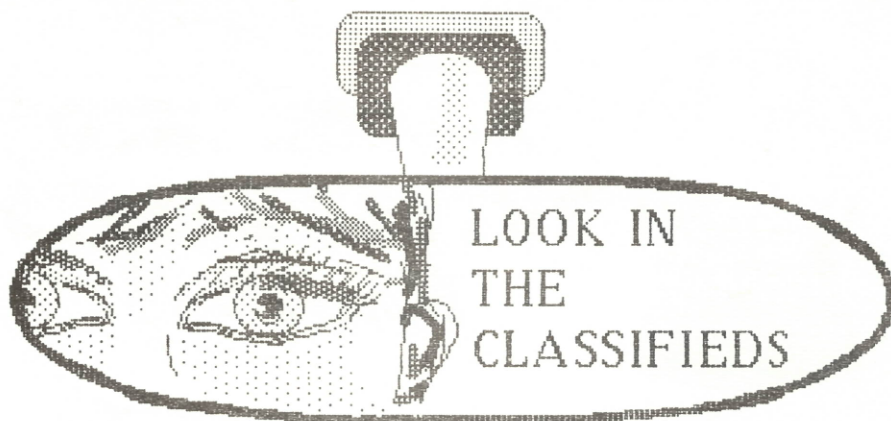

Do you recognize the name Brock Yates? Well how about the Sea to Shining Sea Race? Ok, how about the movie Cannonball Run? Brock Yates was the idea man behind this wild, cross country event after actually running several Sea to Shining Sea Races. Ah, but what could top all this? How about a "legitimate", nationally sponsored 1LAP USA RALLY!

What's more exciting, one of our own Club members, Jim Gladson, will be participating in this $1,000 entry fee event.

This CANNONBALL ONE LAP OF AMERICA is being sponsored by some very impressive folks: Uniroyal Tire Company, The Sports Car Club of America (SCCA), Bendix Brakes, Autolite and Rolex watches. NBC will be airing a one hour special on the NBC Sports program about the 1 Lap Rally May 27th. The New York Times will also be running a 36 page advertisement supplement near that date.

Jim, has had his 1984 SV0 Mustang in Stuart, Florida for the past few months where the automobile is being prepared for the grueling race. Jim has chosen his Father, Walter as his navigator. Capital Lincoln Mercury is Jim's local sponsor, however, has asked the Central Virginia Mustang Club to provide tee-shirts, patches, decals, whatever we can contribute. To date, a total of 80 applicants out of 120 have been accepted to run this rally. Jim will be at our next meeting if you would like to take to him about the event.

The GRAND PRIZE...$25,000. Watch the next newsletter for the specifics on eligibility, requirements, event format, scoring and rules.

MUSTANG LOVERS ARE EVERYWHERE !

The one car I could never fall asleep behind the wheel of is a 1965 Mustang. I'm not normally emotional about cars, but oooooooh, those '65 Tangs! Cute, sporty, powerful, just large enough, just small enough. As close as I've ever seen to The Perfect Car.

Rose Perruso of Arlington feels the same way about her '65 Mustang convertible. She feels even more affectionate toward a mysterious favor-doer. Rose's story:

"You may recall Tuesday, Oct. 15, was a gloriously warm and sunshiny fall day - perfect weather to take a spin . . .

"Happily, I lowered the top to feel the sun on my face and the wind in my hair. Feeling all was well with the world, I drove to Seven Corners in Falls Church to poke around the stores in the mall.

"An hour or so later, noticing small groups standing under shelter at the exits, I learned the skies had opened, and the rain was teeming down . . .

"My heart sank as I visualized the wide open Mustang . . . Shuffling silently through the clusters of shoppers, I spotted my convertible.

"Did my eyes deceive me? Was my top back in place? It couldn't be."

But it was. A stranger had dropped the top, fastened it securely and rolled up all the windows. For dessert, he had even zipped the back window shut.

"Whoever and wherever you are," concludes Rose, "you made my day, you wonderful person."

EDITORS NOTE: Thank you Charlie Coro for submitting this delightful story from the Wednesday, October 30, 1985, THE WASHINGTON POST by Bob Levey.

BEAUTIES VS. BEASTS

Being interested in Mustangs [and a Charter member of the Club], made me really aware of the differences between my car compared to a lot of other Mustangs.

The Club has allowed me to get involved with shows, parades, and contests, which changed my attitude toward my car. My car was really "OK"; even though it isn't nearly as nice as other cars in those events. After looking at all these other Mustangs I, thought to myself, "I wish my car had this. I wish my car had that." These cars were super, super nice, real beauties. I originally felt like there was no need to enter my car in any events. But, as I faced reality, my car had over 100,000 miles, it's my only means of transportation and isn't garage-kept. My beast wasn't so bad after all.

As the old saying goes, you have to start somewhere. A good vacuuming, vinyl treatment and lots and lots of polish can really spiff up an old classic. So remember, every car has potential. Just being a Mustang, speaks for itself. When we have any event in the Mustang Club, your participation is what makes this a Club and make us go forward. Don't be surprised, next event, if someone walks up and tells you about the Mustang they had that was just like yours. Several people still see beauty in your beast. Donnie Herndon

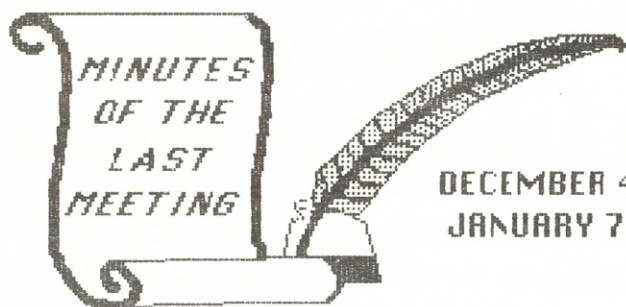

TECH TALK: Ford's 1986 5.0 Liter H.O. Engine

With the 1986 models of the 5.0 liter H.O. (High Output) Engine, the carburetor pasted into history. What replaced it? The Electronic Fuel Injection. I am not talking a single nozzle spraying into the manifold; no, what we have here is eight matched high precision injectors rated at 19 LB/Hr mounted just in front on the intake valve. This is serious fuel injection. No more concern about routing the intake manifold runners to get a balanced mixture to all cylinders. Nope! Just nice long straight flow from the throttle plate to the injector, spray a measured amount of gas, BINGO!, perfect mixture. No more rich or lean cylinders.

Fuel injecting is not new. It was first used in fighter aircraft where maneuvering could get a carburetor in to positions where it no longer worked. Chevrolet installed it on some of their Corvettes. These were mechanical systems relying on expensive pumps and fancy valves to get the job done, a compromise at best.

On the Ford unit, it is computer-controlled. The computer monitors the engine speed, the engine temperature, the air pressure on both sides of the throttle plate, the air temperature and the throttle position. Then the computer calculates the exact amount of fuel charge needed for one cylinder, then does it seven more times. We are going to get maximum energy out of every gallon of gas, lower exhaust emissions, and get smoother throttle response. The down side of this system is weekend mechanics won't be working on their fuel systems, but then again, the EPA has been trying to get people to stop fooling around with the carburetors for years. How could we mention the EPA and not state the MPG rating for the 1986 Mustang GT is 22.5 Miles Per Gallon.
