CENTRAL VIRGINIA MUSTANG CLUB

ISSUE 19

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE OCT '87

The first order of business is to personally thank everyone who worked so tirelessly to put together our third annual Classic Car Cavalcade. And second, to thank everyone who brought a car, in spite of the weather. If only we could get some cooperation from the weather. A BIG THANK YOU! It makes me very proud when people recognize our logo or our Club name because they've heard what a nice Club we have developed. Let's continue that tradition of respect & development.

We are coming to the end of another year but the beginning of new plans. I would like to suggest planning events earlier. From the looks of Chesterfield Town Center, it would be perfect for a Spring Mall Show. Now is a good time to start laying out a calendar of events for next year which could include picnics, more long distance cruises and maybe a Spring Rally. Bring your ideas to the next meeting on Wed., Oct. 7th and let's work together so everyone derives as much fun and enjoyment from the Central Virginia Mustang Club as possible.

Terry Wagner, President

CLASSIC CAR CAVALCADE 1987 REPORT

As the minutes ticked away, the plans for the '87 Classic Car Cavalcade fell into place - just like clockwork. The CVMC exhibits a great deal of class through experience whenever there is a Club event to be organized and presented.

The pre-planning sessions were held month's earlier by Show Chairman Kenny Fischer to decide upon the general outline for this year's show. Fifteen Committee Chairmen were selected to begin their various tasks to support the show.

Publicity Chairman Tina Fritz sent press releases to all the Mustang Magazines, local publications, TV, Radio and Cable Stations to alert them about the show. A letter was sent to 135 parts vendors asking for their support in the way of advertising or door prizes. And Mustang Parts houses were asked to send 100 catalogs to be used in our Catalog Collection.

Bill Thompson, Awards Chairman, began arranging for dash plaques, trophies and engraving. Even though Bill had another commitment for the show weekend, he continued to followup and make sure that the awards portion of the show was handled.

Registration forms were reviewed from last year and Monte Evans interjected some good ideas on a numbering system and began to formulate a plan to get every one registered and in place so he would have time to work on preparing his car for the show.

Another committee handled judging. Carroll Lipscombe began the Chairmanship and had a committee review these forms. However, due to surgery, the Judging Committee day of the show was handled by the entire "Committee", and quite well too!

The Facilities Chairman, Terry Wagner, had to arrange for an RV from Falling Creek RV, porta-potties, trash boxes and arrange the layout of the show. Of course there's tarps, tables, signs, electricity etc., etc.

One of the biggest jobs to be tackled was feeding the expected crowd. Barbara Evans deserves a special thank you for her wonderful job as Concession Chairman. She had to plan what to serve, how much to serve, what to charge, where to purchase the food, how to transport it and store it.

Believe me, no one went hungry or thirsty. The BBQ was delicious!

Of course one of the important money making propositions of the show is our raffles. Sponsors Chairman Leroy Lilly did another outstanding job in the variety and quantity of door prizes that were drawn for the day of the show. Would you believe over 50 door prizes totaling over $1000 in value; from $2 hats to a $300 Color TV won by Bob Anderson, one of our regulars. Good job Leroy.

Some of the Chairman's jobs didn't really start until the day of the show. Under the constant deadline of the threatening skies and the 4 o'clock trophy deadline, Scoring Chairman, Carolyn Timms did an excellent job staying on schedule assisted by Donna Seay.

Our Club shirts, caps, tee's and memorabilia is always in good hands when Merchandise Chairman, Nellie Fischer is involved. And that's a good description of Nellie - involved. Whatever needs done, Nellie can come up with a creative idea to meet the need. Our new light blue polo shirts with the stitched Club logo were quite a hit.

Treasure Alley is always an interesting place to neb around. Bill Jarvis, Vendor Chairman, paid a lot of attention to placing the vendors and making sure they had enough room so they will want to come back year after year. Hopefully you found a good bargain or two with the selection of vendors that were on hand at the show.

Since taking his new position as Second Vice-President and Membership Chairman, Mike Timms can be proud to report that we did pick up several new members at the show and had some that joined at last year's show re-join this year.

Pat Clayton, Announcing Chairman and Terry Wagner did an admirable job on the public address system. With all the confusion of cars registering, raffle tickets being

THE NIGHT BEFORE . . .

T'was the night before the CVMC car show and all at AJD were scurrying around. There were tarps to be raised, food and drinks to be sorted, signs to be made and electric cords to be laid. Registrations forms were numbered & stacked in a pile, a stormy sky & breezy wind blew for quite a while. The classic car beauties were being covered so their shiney coats would not be dulled.

As flashes lighted up the sky, a sold, merchandise for sale, concession items available, announcements about vendors and program advertisers not one thing got left out!

Then there's the lonely job of handling the finances. Cashier Chairman, Bob Leipertz had everything under control. Each Chairman had an envelope to handle receipts and disbursements. All monies were accounted for with a profit for the show of $770.

Come on --- for month's of preparation, an outdoor show, no rain date and threatening skys all day which kept a big percentage of cars away, $770 is exceptional.

It's not right to just mention the Chairmen for their outstanding efforts without congratulating everyone who contributed their time and talents to work on a committee, help the night before the show, during the show or cleanup.

As for the show itself. Anyone leaving prior to trophy presentations missed the best part. We almost made it past the bad weather til 3:55 PM. Trophys started at 4 and by 4:30 there wasn't a dry belly button on the ADJ parking lot. It didn't just sprinkle, or rain, or just storm. You would have thought a hurricane had come in off the ocean. After 90 minutes of this torrential downpour and gusty winds (again - same thing the night before), all those who were left shared a beverage some friendship and stored up some new memories to be enjoyed another time.

few said goodbye. As all the chores were done, we sat down to have some fun, but much to our regret some of us were to get soaking wet.

As it started to spinkle, we were safely tucked under the protection of our tarp. Kenny and Carl were sent to find food. Those who were left sat under the tarp watching nature's fireworks and listening to the rumbling of the sky. On we were chilly and a little wet, but we thought we had the ole' storm whipped. Just as we breathed a sigh of relief, the wind and rain returned with a vengeance. With a hearty gust the wind ripped once, then twice through our tarp, but it held on. Then lady luck left us brave souls to fend for ourselves. On the third try, ole' man wind carried our tarp up, up and away. There we sat getting soaked in a few short seconds, for the rain was heavy and ugly as an old rusting chevy. We retreated to the dryness of the camper. You never saw folks move so fast. Some brave souls were determined to claim our tarp from the cold wind but continued to get soaked in this September rain.

The lightning was harsh and we were sure it had struck close by. A few minutes later our merry band was joined by the trucks from the fire department. We sprang from our camper as quickly as we got in it to see what was going on. OH! What a sight three fire trucks, lights a flashing, nine scurrying people and one wet dog.

Luckily no damage was done and things finally calmed again.

Kenny & Carl arrived with the meal and you should have heard the sound of our squeals. When the pizza came, pigs we became.

Then we said our goodbyes to the three brave souls left to protect the fort. As the lightning still flashed, we pondered the Club's cash. We hoped for a dry Saturday and for a successful show.

Minutes Of Sept 2nd,
1987

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Virginia Mustang Club was called to order by Terry Wagner, President, at 7:70 P.M., Wednesday, September 2nd at Richmond Ford, 4600 W. Broad St.

The Treasurer's Report was given by Bob Leipertz. The treasury was $1144.75 & membership was 136.

Barabara Evans gave the refreshment report stating she had the usual drinks and several door prizes. She also thanked Al Azzarone for his donation of many paper products to be used at the car show.

Betty Wilson asked for any photographs that members wanted to donate for the Club Scrapbook.

Carl Evans bought up that there was a parade scheduled in West Point on October 3rd. Anyone Interested should contact Carl for details.

Leroy Lilly stated that the sponsors for the car show were shaping up nicely and we should have a successful program and door prize collection. Door prizes had been received from across the country as well as local businesses. Anyone who contributed a door prize would be listed in our program along with paid advertisers & trophy sponsors.

Tina Fritz of publications announced that Carroll Lipscombe was in the hospital and passed a card around for everyone to sign. Tina advised the Club that Jim Gladson's father had passed away and the Club had sent a sympathy card. She announced that the Club would have a polo shirt in light blue with the Club logo stitched on the front available the day of the show for $20. She also advised that ads for the car show would be running in the newspaper prior to the show and that several other magazines and newspapers had published information on our show. It was noted that the trophies were complete and anyone wishing to sponsor a class could contact Tina.

Donna Seay advised she did not have an update on Regency Square as a possible meeting place. Donna did have a flyer on White Post Celebrates '87 and a schedule of events for the Oct. 16 and 17 weekend (see article this issue).

Donna asked that anyone with Ukrop's receipts could turn them in this evening, the cruise or car show.

Brenda Jones told the Club that her professional organization was sponsoring a car care fair on Oct. 24. This fair is free and there will be various vendors checking out various parts of your car.

Kenny told the members that the Club was having a second raffle for a quilt and timing light. Tickets are $1.00 and should be returned the day of the car show or before.

Bob Leipertz reminded committee chairmen that all disbursements must have receipts. The day of the show committee members should put any money in their committee envelope before turning it in to him.

One new member, Joe with a '69 Fastback was welcomed to the Club.

Terry asked everyone to hand out car show flyers.

Monty reminded members to arrive to register for the show ASAP.

It was noted that the next meeting would be Wednesday October 7 at Richmond Ford at 7:30 as usual.

No speaker. Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,
Donna Seay, Club Secretary
