April Fools Car Show

CVMC held it's first ever Spring Show on April 1, 2006. Yes, we know, it's "April Fool's Day". Back when we were starting to put together this show I wondered to myself. What if we said we were having a Show on "April Fool's Day", pass out fliers but, instead of having a show we just put a big sign in the middle of the parking lot that said "APRIL FOOL!" and sat in the bushes and watch to people show up! Do you think they would have seen the humor? Nah I didn't either so we had real show instead.

This show was a first for CVMC. The show was open to all makes and models. It was also the first time we awarded "Top 30 Trophies" that was voted on by the participants and visitors.

CVMC also had a "Best Of Show Trophy" awarded to Herbert Hudson for his beautiful Chevy Truck pictured above.

We had 118 Show Cars and they came from all over the metro area. They even came from as far away as Lynchburg, the Valley and Fredericksburg.

CVMC wants to thanks everyone who helped to make this show a success. We hope everyone had fun and will come back again next year!

CVMC Meeting Minutes March 1, 2006

Gordon called the meeting to order at 7:30pm. He spoke briefly on the membership and how the number of members is climbing and that all members in the club should assist in recruiting new members.

Gordon then welcomed everyone and asked if there were any visitors in attendance. Tonight there were 3 visitors: Michael Vanderway, Betty Steinman and Bob Rodell. Tonight we had 67 members in attendance.

Gordon introduced Dave Dickey. Dave spoke on the Fun Ford Weekend to be held at Virginia Motorsports Park in Dinwiddie, Va. Central Virginia Mustang Club will be hosting this event. Dave mentioned the club will need to provide approximately 6 people on Saturday and Sunday during the event for set up, details to follow. Dave also mentioned this is a great opportunity for exposure for the club. This will be Central Virginia Mustang Club's first time as a sponsor of the event. Dave spoke on the Mustang Club of America event in Johnson City Tennessee May 26-28, 2006. Hotel reservations will need to be made quickly to guarantee a room during the event. Dave also mentioned the Mustang Club of America will refund Central Virginia Mustang Club $10.00 per every new member that joins MCA. Joining MCA is not a requirement, but is a nice perk and offers members allot of information and events.

Gordon introduced Ron Martin, treasurer to give the monthly report. The report was accepted by Tony Hall and seconded by Steve Coleman, the vote was unanimous.

Rusty Wiseman spoke about the Asphalt Angels car show that was held in February. There were a total of 6 cars representing Central Virginia Mustang Club and all members placed in judging. Gordon mentioned that Central Virginia Mustang Club may or may not participate in next years show due to some conflicts at the event.

John Meadow from Audio Vision, located in Ashland Virginia was introduced and spoke on Alarm Systems, Remote Starters and GPS systems. Audio Vision also carries a full line or original Radio's for classic cars. There will be a discount for club members, but will need to call Audio Vision for verification of amount.

James Robinson with "Race for the Cure" spoke about a car show that will benefit Relay for Life. The car show is being held on April 29th. Relay for Life will be held at Atlee High School on April 29th. George Bobrovsky mentioned that he would like to have a show at BJ's parking lot in Mechanicsville to benefit Relay for Life as well.

George Bobrovsky spoke about the April Show at Virginia Center Commons on April 1, 2006. He mentioned that he needs volunteers to help set up the show on March 31st. All volunteers will need to arrive between 4:30pm and 5:00pm. The location is the front parking lot next to Dillard's. Paradise Road will be sponsoring the events. George thanked Rusty and Stephanie for their help in obtaining the sponsorship. The manager of Hill City Chop house has welcomed the club for anyone interested in dinner after the show.

BREAK

Gordon mentioned that he has not heard back from the International Car Show and we probably would not be participating this year.

Tony Hall spoke on the Fall Show, he said that process was coming along and asked for members to pass out flyers. Tony hopes this year's show will be the largest one to date. He is still looking for sponsors and volunteers for the event.

Gordon then mentioned several events that will be taking place in the near future. Cruise In, The old K-Mart store on Midlothian Turnpike to be held on March 18, 2006. A Spring Dance will be held in Bowling Green, Va. on April 1, 2006 from 8 until midnight. Quinton Volunteer Fire and EMS annual car show on March 25, 2006. Members will need to meet at the McDonald's located on Willis Road at 9:30am. G-Force Carts on Sunday, March 12, 2006.

Llew Stakes talked about the Bon Air parade on May 13, 2006. Members will need to meet at Bon Air Presbyterian Church between 10:00am and 10:30am. The Church is located near Stony Point Shopping Center. The club is still in need of a volunteer to organize the Cruise In's for this upcoming year.

Stephanie mentioned Mustang Week in Myrtle Beach the week of July 23 through 30, 2006. The Viking Hotel is the host hotel and will need to make reservations fairly quickly to guarantee a room.

Gordon turned the floor over to Brenda Jones who held the clubs monthly raffle and 50/50. Janet Armstrong was the winner of $40.00.

The meeting was then adjourned at 8:30pm.

National Memorial Day Parade May 29, 2006

CVMC has been invited back to participate in the parade in Washington, D.C., Monday May 29th. The starting time 10:00 AM.

Are you ready for the big time? If you are interested in participating in a nationally recognized parade, travel with us and participate. Who knows, you maybe on national television, I was on NBC National News last year! We have about 15 slots for all Mustang body styles and can exceed that number if we have convertibles that are willing to let a veteran or two (potentially disabled) sit in the back seat of your convertible. We currently have 8 definite (4 coupes, 4 convertibles) and 1 coupe as a maybe signed up from the club.

Last year, we teamed up with a very large and nationally recognized veteran's organization, the Marine Corps League. They had so much fun with us; they want to team up with us again. They can provide a veteran for every car!

Many of us spent Sunday night at the Hilton Hotel in Springfield, VA, Hilton Hotel and went to the new air and space museum near Dulles airport. All that went enjoyed the experience. This year, we will plan to leave earlier and reserve rooms at the same hotel, take the Metro into DC to the Smithsonian American History Museum.

*Smithsonian American History Museum
Please contact...*

*Kathy McWilliams
Cell: 804-512-7403
E-mail: kathymcw@yahoo.com*

Specific time and meeting location information are forthcoming and will be communicated to all participants. I hope you can come out and celebrate our Veterans, you may even see me in my Air Force uniform, now who would pass that up?

By Kathy McWilliams

Editorial Note: These veterans have given a lot so we can have fun with our Mustangs. The very least we can do is have a huge turn out to give them a ride in the "National Memorial Day Parade".

I will be traveling back from a MCA National in Tennessee the day before and I will be there.

So show your thanks and sign up for a Great Parade in our Nations Capital for those who gave a lot and those who gave their all!

WOMEN ARE KEY TO AUTO INDUSTRY FUTURE

By Michael Collins, FCN

DEARBORN, March 24, 2006 (FCN) -- When the U.S. Congress established March as Women's History Month in 1987, its primary goal was to spotlight the outstanding achievements of women in years past. But it also sheds light on women making history today. And nowhere is the emerging presence of women more evident than the automotive industry, where women are making great strides in a once male-dominated environment.

In a recent article on the auto industry, The Cleveland Plain Dealer said, "The roller-coaster fortunes of the domestic automakers are part of the historical pattern, but this time there's a difference: women at GM and Ford will play starring roles in the attempted turnaround of both companies."

The article lists Ford Motor Company executives Anne Stevens, Nancy Gioia, Barbara Samardizch, Anne Belec, Sue Cischke, Deborah Coleman and Elena Ford as some of the key leaders in deciding the fate of the automotive business in the United States.

"The automotive industry is not for the weak of heart or the faint of mind. Fear is not an option." said Stevens, recently appointed by Bill Ford as chief operating officer of The Americas and a chief architect of the "Way Forward" plan.

So what are the traits that women in the leadership ranks seem to have in common?

According to a recent survey of American women in leadership roles commissioned by IMdiversity.com, much of their success can be attributed to tenacity and optimism.

It's those two traits that are the threads that run through the careers of the Ford executives FCN is profiling in celebration of National Women's History Month.

By Dave Dickey
MCA Regional Director

As most of you know, CVMC is going to be the host club for Ford Fun Weekend (FFW) at Virginia Motorsports Park, near Petersburg, VA. on June 23 to 25. Gordon has been in contact with a Ford Fun Weekend representative. She indicated there was plenty of time and she would be back in touch with us. In earlier communications with FFW, CVMC members will be given discounts for participating at the track; however we must supply FFW coordinators with a copy of our membership roster. FFW will NOT be able to offer a discount at the gate so you need to join or renew your dues early to be listed in our roster. If you would like to volunteer to help with the show, there will be a sign up sheet on the table.

MCA has approved the CLUB PROMOTION again for 2006. This promotion is to get new MCA members and, at the same time, benefit the regional clubs. For every NEW CVMC member that joins MCA and we submit their payment to MCA, the club will receive $10 to our treasury, so by joining MCA thru the club, you will be helping the club.

I am trying to get a list of all club members that are also MCA. Also I need to know any club/MCA members attending any MCA National or Grand National show and if you volunteered to help at that show or attended any MCA type meetings.

Please let me know. If you would like to join MCA I will have MCA applications at the meeting.

The 1st MCA National show close to us is May 26 to 28 at Johnson City, TN. which is around 360 miles from Richmond with an estimated 6 hours drive time. The show site is at the Tennessee State University campus. I received a few show flyers and they are on the table.

Remember to get your Hotel reservations early for any MCA show you plan on attending.

Rusty will tell you all about MCA's 30th anniversary show Labor Day weekend; which is September 1 to 4; at Barber Motorsports Park in Birmingham, AL.

MCA regional shows close to Richmond:

April 30, 2006: Mustang and Ford show in Rockville, Maryland Hosted by National Capital Region Mustang Club at Montgomery College. For more information visit their website at <http://www.ncrmc.org>.

May 20, 2006: Southeastern Virginia Mustang Club at Virginia Beach, Virginia; for more information visit their website at <http://SEVMcatcox.net>.

May 27, 2006: Open Car, Truck and Motorcycle Show at Elizabeth City, North Carolina, hosted by Chrome Pony Mustang Club. For more information, email smsjdsatinteliport.com.

News From The Car Club Council of Central Virginia

By Fred Fann

How high will the price of gasoline and diesel fuel go? I'm not very good at predicting the future but I think gas and diesel prices will continue to go up until they get just below the cost of their replacements. And what are the replacements for gasoline and diesel fuel? Right now it is possible to make your own biodiesel from leftover cooking oil. You can purchase kits that will allow you to do just that. There are also a number of companies that are making biodiesel. The replacement for gasoline is E85 - a mix of 85% ethanol and 15% gasoline. GM is coming out with what it calls flex fuel vehicles that can run on regular gasoline out of the pump and also on E85. Keep in mind that both E85 and biodiesel have two major problems. The first is finding a station that sells either one. The other is the cost. Both cost higher to produce than gasoline or diesel fuel. But when gasoline and diesel get into the $5 to $6 a gallon range you will begin to see the biodiesel and E85 because then they can compete.

I know it's not a good thing to hear that gasoline will be in the $5 to $6 range but this is where we are headed. Ethanol is going to be used in the Richmond area gasoline to replace MTBE (supposedly helps cut air pollution). I assume the government wanted to wait until MTBE had polluted plenty of ground water before getting rid of it. Some states and Canada had already banned its use because it is water-soluble and can easily get into water giving it a kerosene taste. And of course there are predictions of ethanol shortages just in time for spring travel so those gas prices can really soar.

One problem with using E85 is that few vehicles will actually be able to use it. Most automakers are still producing cars and trucks to run only on gasoline with no ethanol. If President Bush and the members of Congress are really sincere about the country using less foreign oil then they need to act and act now. New vehicles should be required to run on either gasoline or E85 and there should be tax credits for those who purchase and drive subcompacts that get high gas mileage. And production of ethanol must increase.

The problem we as hobbyists may face in the future is how do we convert engines that are 40 or more years old to new technology such as E85? I'm sure there is plenty of opportunity for innovative companies to come up with something. You will recall all the hype when leaded gasoline production ended. But those old engines are still running fine on the unleaded.

The demand for gasoline is at an all time high and that is one reason prices are up. Here's an example: Beijing, China. In the 1990's everyone in Beijing traveled by bicycle. Today over 1,000 cars are added to the streets of Beijing EACH DAY! China's economy is booming and everyone wants the proverbial chicken in a pot or rather a car in every driveway. Demand for gasoline is going to continue to soar as India, China and other countries become more modern and more like the US - addicted to oil.

How long before Toyota becomes the number one automaker? We might not have to wait too much longer as both GM and Ford continue to lose sales and profit. In less than 2 years GM stock has gone from $55 a share to about $21 per share. American companies cannot compete with foreign companies that have both low labor costs and state run health care. I heard that $1500 of every vehicle GM sells has to go to health care for GM employees.

The EPA wanted to allow power plants and factories to upgrade equipment without installing the newest anti-pollution controls. 14 states and several cities sued and won. This means that about 800 power plants and 17,000 factories will pollute less - despite the EPA.

The members of the Virginia Association of Car Councils have met and come up with several ideas about the misuse of antique plates that inspired HB 288. In fact DMV might be getting the message as we have heard of at least two DMV offices that are now explaining the rules about antique plates to those who apply for them. Too bad they couldn't have started doing that years ago.

It is now spring and time to get your special vehicle out and about. Remember - gasoline prices will never be lower so enjoy that old cruiser today.

CVMC Guess The Plate

The object of this game is to guess which CVMC member the license plate belongs to.

Dave's Mustang Trivia

By David Lythgoe

This feature will return next month.

Rick's Tip's

Brake's Again!

Hey, if you have a 30 to 40 year old Mustang. You have 30 to 40 year old brake lines. Guess what? Your brake line should have been replaced 10 years ago.

I personally like stainless steel brake lines because they will not rust. The Mustang Club of America (MCA) requires original finish brake lines which is light coated steel and will rust if scratched. I think in the future MCA will allow stainless steel lines.

It would also be a good idea to replace the master cylinders and especially the 2 front rubber lines and the rear rubber lines. Silicone brake fluid is best to use because it will help keep the cylinders from sticking due to rust when the car is not driven for long periods of time.

If you have any questions please feel free to call me during the day at 804-321-5383.

*Happy Cruising
