We always need judges! No experience? No problem! We can pair you with an experienced judge and begin to learn the ropes. MCA REPORT

The quarterly MCA Corporate Board of Directors meeting was held on August 3 in Dallas, Texas. I received the following information from May 11th Board of Directors meeting:

- Check your September Mustang Times for the Nominations for the BOD elections with the Nominees' picture and experiences. This year MCA will try digital voting information, check out August's issue of "Mustang Times" for information and instructions on page 12.
- Roll call of 26 National Director with 4 Board members not in attendance resulted in a quorum meeting. 5 Regional Directors were in attendance. January 2019 minutes were approved as written. As of May, current world wide membership is 12,604 members.
- Financial Report: The Bank combined asset business checking, High Yield saving and special events have been transferred to the new Treasurer and new Bank with all accounting complete except for checks written that have cleared the bank. We have also received funds from Ford Motor Company, 1 of our major sponsorship.
- The new Internet website has been launched with new pages. MCA's website committee are aware and working on some of the problems that have developed after the launch of the new website.
- Judging report: another Assistant National Head Judge position will be established starting in 2020. Other proposed changes are the timing of the judging meeting and other specialty classes

- Hall of Fame report: no nominations were received as of May 11th. Look for an article to be written for Mustang Times.
- Insurance: applications for all MCA charter clubs show liability insurance for 2019 is in place.
- Kathy and I met the morning of July 27 with MCA President Steve Prewitt and National Show Committee Chairman Chris Waddle and Classification Judge Patsy Brown at the Expo Convention Center in Fredericksburg. The purpose of this meeting with all the National Capital Region Mustang Club (NCRM) Committee Chairs for a complete review and walk thru for the upcoming Labor Day MCA Grand National Show. This was a very good meeting with a lot of give and take on some great ideas. The MCA show committee also shared some of the major problems other MCA clubs have had and how those problems were solved. I believe it has been only recently that MCA started this type of show review. I know that in September 2011 MCA did not have this type of meeting for the Grand National in Waldorf, MD. About 20 CVMC members attended that show with many coming home with awards. From my perspective it was a great, very informative meeting with some terrific ideas we can study and possibly implement on our future shows. Kathy expanded more on this meeting.

Our 35th Bass Pro Fall Shops show posters were available for those attending the club business meeting to pick up as many posters as they need for distribution. The 4 person golf cart has been reserved for delivery 13 September and storage at Bass Pro for our use at the show along with Graham's golf cart. 2 portable toilets (1 regular and 1 handicap) will be delivered to Bass Pro on 13 September with the same pricing as the last few years. If we have to implement a rain date pickup and redelivery of the rented toilets will be $40.00 and the rented golf cart $33.00 each time.

Mike Peyton and I spent many hours creating the Fall show program booklet. We want to thank CVMC members for providing us with show business cards, sponsors and vendor ads materials. As of this date our program booklet is at the printers for their review, type setup, booklet approval review for Mike and I, along with several CVMC officers for approval. Then the printers will print the program booklets hopefully in time to go into the show goodie bags.

August's Mustang Times issue has several articles on Lee Iacocca, who passed in July, in both Steve Prewitt and Don Farr's pages 04 and 06; along with Lee's obituary on page 10, and an excellent editorial on Lee on pages 64 and 65 along with John Clor's "Top 7 Threats to the Joy of Driving". In my opinion a great article on pages 65 to 68.

For our new members you can join MCA on line. There are 3 different tier levels which are discussed at MCA's website www.mustang.org. When you join MCA please email me at (mcadirectoratcentralvamustang.com) or Sandy Robbins at (membershipatcentralvamustang.com). As an MCA member you receive "Mustang Times" magazine included with your membership which is NOT available on newsstands or anywhere else. A list of National show, pages 72 to 75 also showing our Fall show on page 73.

As always check our newsletter, Facebook, CVMC's events listings for any upcoming activities.

SEPTEMBER 2019 Car Hobbyist News From the Council

It's been a hot summer. You may not have missed them but recall that whenever it was in the 90s for several days that we had ozone alerts? Ozone alerts or ozone action days are days when it is hot and ozone (O₃) forms near the earth's surface. People with respiratory conditions should stay inside on days with high ozone. When was the last time you heard the weather forecasters even use the word ozone? This is because there are so few ozone alert days. In the past year there have been only 3 ozone days where it was above 70 parts per billion in Virginia. Two days in Fairfax County and one day in Arlington County are the three ozone days and they were 71, 72 and 74 parts per billion – just over the 70 limit.

You would think that fewer ozone alert days would be reason to let us know that the air quality is improving but the news media doesn't mention it. A combination of cleaner vehicles, cleaner power plants, use of low VOC paint and cleaning products have all combined to bring us less ozone. I'm guessing the media has ignored this because it's good news. And of course this doesn't fit their narrative that everything is just getting worse every day.

We should continue to be thankful for getting the antique exhaust law through last year. If you read the SEMA-SAN news there have been articles about the updating of the California exhaust law. Before the law change motorists would get a "fix-it" ticket and 30 days to correct the loud exhaust. Now they get an immediate fine – so much for due process. The fine is $25 but after all the fees are added in the total charge is $193! Vehicles that exceed 90 decibels are in violation of the California law. We in Virginia don't have to worry about decibels as we can use aftermarket exhaust parts on vehicles registered as antiques. It's good not to live in California.

California Assemblymembers Jim Frazier and Tim Grayson introduced SEMA-supported legislation (A.B. 390) to repeal the section of A.B. 1824 that amended how California law enforcement officials issue citations for exhaust noise violations. A.B. 390 would re-institute law enforcement's discretion to issue "fix-it" tickets. Hopefully this will get passed.

Rhode Island has passed a law allowing year of manufacture plates on just the rear of vehicles registered as antiques. This is the first time in years any state has gone to one plate. The law only allows antiques to go with one plate and not regular passenger vehicles. In Virginia most of the people who are concerned about one plate are those with Mustangs, Corvettes, Vipers and other sporty vehicles that just don't look right with a front plate. No one likes to drill through the bumper cover to install a plate bracket plus those brackets always seem a little loose.

There is pretty much no chance for Virginia to go to one plate even for antiques. Members of the General Assembly have killed many one plate bills over the past 20+ years.

Here is part of the antique vehicle plate law that you may not be aware of: C. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 46.2-711 and 46.2-715, antique motor vehicles may display single license plates if the original manufacturer's design of the antique motor vehicles allows for the use of only single license plates or if the license plate was originally issued in one of the following years and is displayed in accordance with the provisions of subsection B: 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1945, or 1946.

Yes, if the original manufacturer's design of an antique motor vehicle allows for the use of only a single license plate then you can use just the rear plate. You may wish to carry a copy of the law if you run one plate or if you have a vehicle that is one of the above years. 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1945, and 1946 are years that the State of Virginia only issued one license plate for various reasons.
