MARCH 1990

CENTRAL VIRGINIA MUSTANG CLUB

ISSUE 41

President's Message

The past two months have been a very busy time for the CVMC. We have made the final plans for the May 5th show with Petersburg Ford. We have made some preliminary plans for our fall show with Universal Ford. Also a cruise to Jamestown via Route 5 has been scheduled and a scavenger hunt is planned. I would like to invite all club members to come and participate in these activities and to give their full support to all club functions.

I would like to thank Donna Seay for all the good work and contributions to the club as secretary. Donna has decided to step down from this position and Billie Jarvis has graciously accepted to take over. Thank you Donna and Billie.

Since we are into the third month of the year, I would like to remind all club members who have not renewed their membership by now to do so as soon as possible so they can benefit from all the things a membership has to offer. See Kevin Kean at the next meeting. Thank you.

Your president,
Monte Evans

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

CVMC CRUISE TO JAMESTOWN

Comments & Suggestions

This section will allow members to give the club suggestions for new activities, articles, speakers, etc. It will also give members the opportunity to voice their opinions. As editor I will print these articles as they are written. I will in no way change the content. Keep in mind -- the views expressed in this column are not necessarily the opinions of the club or the editor.

From Carolyn Timms:

1. I thought it would be an interesting bit of trivia to have everyone in the club who has a personalized Mustang license plate to send this into Holly to publish in the newsletter. Why don't we all pitch in and do this, and in doing so, we will all be contributing to the success of our newsletter.

2. It just recently came to my attention that many of the spouse's birthdays were being overlooked each month because the membership application does not have a space allocated for it. In order for this to be done we need your help. Please forward Kevin Kean or myself these dates. If you prefer not having the year published you can just send the month and day. I appreciate everyone's help in this effort.

Anonymous Comment:

(This opinion was mailed to my address by a club member who felt the comment was legitimate but wished to remain anonymous)

Concerning the Petersburg Ford car show. It is apparent to me that if the membership enters just 30 cars then Petersburg Ford receives the $300 that they paid us for labels and judging. This just doesn't appear like much of a benefit to the CVMC.

February 7 Minutes

The February 7, 1990 meeting of the CVMC was called to order at Richmond Ford at 7:30 p.m. by president Monte Evans.

Cheryl Kean, treasurer, advised that the balance in the checking account was $911.07. She also advised that the 1986 taxes of $188 had been paid. She also advised the matter of the overdue bill from the Richmond Newspapers had been taken care of. No additional fees were assessed to the club. She also read a thank you note from Kevin Johnson for a $100 donation from the club to his medical fund.

Nellie Fischer, merchandise chairman, advised she had crystal cars and pewter keychains for sale.

A special cruise was discussed. The club decided that a cruise would be held Sunday, March 11. Members are to meet at Eastgate Mall/Fairfield Commons in front of Sears at 1:30. The club will drive to Jamestown down Rt. 5 and take the ferry.

Tentative plans include a dinner stop.

Kevin Kean, membership chairman, advised CVMC had 21 current paid-up members. He advised dues were due January 1. He asked all members to renew ASAP.

Donna Seay advised the membership that a party would be held at Butch Williamson's house to watch the Busch Clash.

Monte advised that Junie Donlevy's sponsorship had fallen through.

Holly Womack, newsletter editor, was absent due to college classes. Donna Seay advised the membership that Holly would appreciate any articles, stories, etc. from club members. She also advised that in the future if there were no articles to publish that the newsletter would not be published. Donna also advised the club to thank Holly for a job well done the next time they see her.

Carroll Lipscombe advised the members to let him know if they are interested in participating in the St. Patrick's Day Parade March 18.

Donnie Herndon advised he was lining up speakers and that March's speaker would be an auto mechanic speaking on trouble shooting.

Donnie is also acting as a car show liaison for promoting shows for the club to attend as a group or on an individual basis. Please contact Donnie for information on local or distance shows.

For information on the Shelby convention, July 5-8 in Dearborn, Michigan. Please contact Earl Morris. Earl is a member of the National Shelby Club and would be able to provide you with anything you might need to know.

Judy Evans, refreshment chairman, advised the membership that this meeting would be her last as chairman. For door prizes she had a Motorsport wall clock and Mustang floor mats. These prizes were generously donated by Kenny & Fischer. It was also noted that Barbara Evans would take over the duties of the refreshment chairman in March.

On display at the meeting was the new fabric banner of the CVMC. The new banner is very striking with its black, red, silver and blue colors. This banner was made by Nellie Fischer. She was thanked by the club for a job well done.

The club also had an open discussion on some of the upcoming car shows. Some of the below information may need to be verified as it was given from memory from several members. If you require additional information, please contact: Kenny Fischer, Bill Jarvis or Donnie Herndon.

Apr. 28 Fairgrounds AACA show

Apr. 29 Capitol Region Mustang Club at Academy Ford, Laurel, MD

May 11-12 Shennendoah Region Mustang Club in Winchester, VA

Monte Evans advised that he had copies of wiring diagrams for the 1965-69 Mustangs. He copied them from an old motor manual service book. Copies would be available to members free of charge during the break.

A special cruise/scavenger hunt has been set for Saturday, March 24 at 8 p.m. at Bill's BBQ by the Diamond. Carolyn Timms is in charge of this special event. She will provide a list of items to be found within a time limit. The member who finds the most items will win a prize. Please contact Carolyn for additional information.

Dan Doody addressed the club and asked if anyone had any experience with JC Taylor auto insurance. A few members advised that they currently insured with them and had experienced no problems. Dan handed out information on the classic car insurer for those who were interested.

Monte Evans advised the show chairpersons and Board of Directors that he had scheduled the April board meeting on Carlisle weekend in error. The persons involved decided to move the meeting to April 28 around 6 p.m. at Monte's house.

A letter from J. Bradley Flippin was read. Mr. Flippin is currently suing Nationwide over the worth of his classic Mustang which was totalled in an accident. The letter updated the procedures. He advised he would let the club know the outcome when the court made their determination. Mr. Flippin, who is not a CVMC member, thought this information could be helpful to club members if they had had the same experience.

Monte Evans read a draft of a thank you letter that will be sent to Richmond Ford from the CVMC thanking them for the use of their meeting room every month. The letter also extends an offer for the club to do a display-only show at Richmond Ford as our way of saying "thank you." The club approved the letter and it was given to the club secretary to type and mail out.

Monte also advised the club that secretary Donna Seay was stepping down and a replacement was needed. It was also noted that she was giving up the chairmanship of the parties and picnic committee. Please contact Monte if you wish to accept any of these positions.

The club show at Petersburg Ford Saturday, May 5 was discussed. Monte advised the membership that the club received $300 for mailing and judging. Additional copies of entry forms are available at meetings. Carroll Lipscombe advised that he needed judges for this show. Rules, once again, would be relaxed. Please contact Carroll or Monte if you wish to be a judge.

The fall car show at Universal Ford was discussed. The dealership will clear their lot and pay all advertising expenses. The CVMC would retain all proceeds. At least 100 spaces would be available, possibly under cover. A date was discussed. The show would probably be scheduled for August or September. It was decided that the date would be scheduled at the next meeting after research into other related events in the area during these two months had been done.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Donna Seay

A Note from the Editor

I regret to inform the club that I will have to step down as editor of the CVMC newsletter. The April newsletter will be my last edition.

My college obligations are extremely time consuming. I had hoped that my schedule would settle down after the midterm but it has not.

Working on the newsletter throughout the past months has given me invaluable experience.

The important thing for club members to remember is that this newsletter is your lifeline. It is of the utmost importance that the club have some form of newsletter at least every other month.

I can speak from experience and tell you all how frustrating it is to try to meet a deadline and also trying to dig up material. If I leave you with no other thought -- PLEASE consider the time and effort your next editor will be taking for the club newsletter so please support him/her.
